

Adult Learning
Within Reach

Cornwall
Autumn 2017

Aspects of Cornish Mining History with David Ager C3528500

The course will look at various aspects of Cornish mining, including social, technical and economic impact. Students will also be introduced to a range of topic areas including emigration; mining engineering; the social life of miners and their families, the current situation in mining heritage and possible re-opening of South Croft Mine.

Thursday 2 Nov - 7 Dec
2017

14:00 - 16:00

6 sessions      £44.00

(free if on qualifying means tested benefit)

King Edward Mine, Troon,
Camborne, Cornwall,
TR14 9DP

enrolonline.wea.org.uk

0300 303 3464

(8.00 am to 8.00pm, Monday to Friday and 8.00am to 1.00pm Saturdays local rate).

@cornwallWEA

Education & Skills
Funding Agency

European Union European Social Fund